McKINLEY AND WILSON ABOARD.

In 1890 William McKinley was born in the English manufacturing city of Sheffield; but in 1894 William L. Wilson was elected and elected in London before he is the author of a Free-trade Tariff Bill. These are significant facts.

STATEMENTS of the condition of the Federal Treasury are published monthly.
Those statements showed that the Cleveland Administration delivered to the Harrison Administration $183,000, 000; and the Harrison Administration turned over to the present Administration $124,000,000, a reduction of $59,000, 000. As the Harrison Administration paid $243,000,000 of the National debt, while CLEVELAND paid but $133,000,000, a difference of $90,000,000, it would show that the Harrison Administration had $100,000,000 the best of it. When Democratic orators and papers assert that the Harrison Administration left a bankrupt Treasury, they state what every well-informed man knows is a palpable lie.

SHOT HIM DEAD!

OFFICER STOCKDALE INSTANTLY
KILLS WILLIAM PRICE.Culmination of a Series of Difficulties—Price Pays the Penalty For His Aggression.

Died with his boots on!

That's the fate that generally befalls the desperado.

William Price, who was better known as "Boley" Price, was killed instantly about half past 3 o'clock yesterday after noon.The particulars in brief are:
Deputy Chief of Police W. A. Stockdale was at his home, 215 Walnut street, Fifth Ward;Freeman Price, father of the dead man, lives with his family next door;"Boley" had been drinking considerably, and had become so noisy about the police that the officers warned him away.William Ginn, a friend, volunteered to take him home.When passing Stockdale's house, Price kicked the door and fired a pistol shot through the glass panel, the fragments of glass cutting the wrist of Miss Ella Stockdale, who was inside the door.Mr. Stockdale, who had just come down stairs from his off-duty nap, was in the hall, but neither he nor his daughter had any warning of Price's presence or intentions.After this Mr. Ginn succeeded in getting Price to his own home, where his father and mother tried to keep him.Meanwhile Mr. Stockdale had sent up stairs for his shotgun, and placed it near at hand in the hall, taking his stand in the doorway.Instead of remaining at home Price came out, and confronting the officer began again his hostile demonstrations.In a twinkling Stockdale reached his gun, and in less than time than it takes to write it Price lay dead on the sidewalk, his breast filled with buckshot.Throughout it appears that Mr. Ginn had acted the part of peacemaker.This is the sequel of two former shootings between the parties.Several years ago Officer Stockdale shot Price in the leg while he was fleeing from arrest, and on June 15th, 1892, each shot the other on identical the same spot where yesterday's killing occurred.Price being slightly wounded in the chin and Stockdale receiving a severe wound in the stomach.For this affair Price was sent to the Penitentiary for a year, and he had but recently returned here.It will be remembered, also, that Price shot and dangerously wounded PolkForsythe of Paris at the Maysville Fair some years ago.The dead man would have been 30 years old next Sunday.A postmortem was held last evening, and Coroner Root will hold an inquest at 3 o'clock this afternoon.Mr. Stockdale surrendered himself to Chief Ort and Judge Plaster placed him under $5,000 bond to appear for a hearing at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. The bond was given promptly.The funeral of William Price will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the residence on Walnut street, Fifth Ward. Rev. D. P. Holt will officiate.

A STRIKE

In the Coke Region of Connecticut, Pa., Ordered.The Trouble, it is Said Has Been Brewing for Some Time.The Cause is a Big Jump in the Price of Coke, Not No Corresponding Increase in Wages, the Men Are Expected to Go Out November 15.UNIONTOWN, Pa., Nov. 7.—There are prospects of another strike in the Connecticut coke region. It has been brewing for some time, and notices have been posted calling on the coke-workers and miners to come out on a strike November 15.The whole matter is denied by District President Lawrence Davis, who says that no strike is contemplated.The McClure Co., suspecting that strike agitators were at work among the men, had about 150 men and laid the suspected agitators off. The price of coke had advanced from 85 cents to prices ranging from $1 to $1.50 and $2. There had, however, been no corresponding advance in wages.That the operators are expecting a conflict is evident from the fact that they are storing coke as rapidly as possible.

CIVIL SERVICE EXTENSION.

Chiefs of Divisions to Be Taken in Out of Political Weather.WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The intimation given by the civil service commission in announcing the recent extensions in the civil service by the president that further extensions were to be made at an early date has been discussed in the departments and among officials who know, and it is said the next extension will include chiefs of divisions in the various departments, which would be a very important move.The salaries paid to these officers are $2,000 each. They have always been held as political plums for the smaller politician, who seeks office in Washington, and it is claimed that offices they are appointed without any fitness whatever for the positions they hold. In many cases the assistant chiefs do all the business of a division during the entire administration. Sometimes it has been suggested that these assistants be promoted, but they generally decline because they fear a demotion might dispense with them and they would be out of a position. If the civil service system were extended to chiefs of divisions, it would be of great importance to the service and accomplish what the commission has long contended for.

For Good Roads.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The agricultural department is about to issue elaborate information on the subject of "good roads" which congress has directed the department to investigate.
The publication will embrace the entire proceedings of the National Road conference held at Asbury Park, N. J., July 5 and 6 last, at which a great variety of opinion on improving roads was presented. Mr. Roy Stone, the special agent and road engineer of the department, will also include number of addresses on the road question. He makes no report, so that these addresses practically constitute the report.

Prisoners Escape Jail.

LAWRENCE, Kas., Nov. 7.—Five prisoners escaped from jail by sawing through the bars of a roof window.
They were Matt Ryan, alias George Hayes, and Brock Ryan, burglar and pickpocket. Ryan has served terms in Joliet and Jefferson City penitentiaries. The other four were colored horse thieves—Bill Dooley, James Jones, John Austin and Fred Miller. Each had a half dozen aliases. It is believed that the saw was given to Ryan by an old man who came to the jail two weeks ago, claiming to be a minister and wishing to pray with the prisoners.

Wife's Saving Association.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 7.—The ladies of the free kindergarten system and the Women's Aid society are actively engaged in making arrangements for the reception and entertainment of the delegates to the first annual convention of the World's Saving Association of America, which opens at the city hall on Friday. This association, which was organized last year at the World's fair, has already taken a high place among the charitable and benevolent organizations of the country.

An Explorer to Be Married.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—A J. Moun-tey Jephson, explorer and author, who went into Africa with Henry M.
Stanley and found Emin Pasha, will come to California to be married. In a few weeks the wedding of Mr. Jephson and Miss Anna Head, daughter of A. E. Head, the well known millionaire mining man of this city, will be celebrated.

Northwestern Voters Out in Force.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 7.—The weather is cloudy throughout the state and clear west to the Rockies. No rain or snow is yet reported. Indications point to a tremendous vote. The recent cold snap has frozen all the roads and has been a big vote polled everywhere.

Shelling Fort Arthur.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—A dispatch from Shanghai to the Central News says that all the foreigner residing in Fort Arthur have arrived at Chee Foo. An attack is now being made on Fort Arthur by the Japanese torpedo boats, and it is expected that Taiten Wan will be attacked during the day.

A Port Abandoned.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Gen. Brooke, commanding the department of the Platte, has issued an order for the abandonment of Ft. McKinley, Wyo.
The troops of the Eighth infantry are being ordered to Ft. D. A. Russell and Troop C, Ninth cavalry, to Ft. Robinson, Neb.

WHY HE DID IT.

A Suicide Induced by Ingersoll's "Destroying" Theory.PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—Wm. Miller, aged 31, who suicided by firing a 22-caliber ball into his heart, left a letter behind saying that Ingersoll claimed it was right for a man to "destroy" himself.The deed was evidently premeditated, for in his pockets were found no less than five letters, addressed to as many different persons, and bidding all farewell. One letter was stamped and sealed, and on the envelope was written, in the German language, to Chas.
Richter and Jacob Frische, of 424 Wood street, the information that $35 included was for his funeral expenses.
Another letter, to his sweetheart in this city, thanked her for her many kindnesses and expressed his love while to his mother in Germany was written a letter in a like strain.

FOUND DEAD.

A Dastardly Murder of a Probable Witness

TACOMA, Wash., Nov. 7.—About daylight the lifeless body of Matthew A.
Bartlett, a well-known young man, was found on the sidewalk by a newsboy.
His right ear was bruised and his nose bloody, but he bore no other marks of violence, though papers from his pockets were scattered about. His watch was untouched.The theory generally advanced is that Bartlett was murdered for knowing too much about the mysterious death of Accountant Joseph Shadle, at the Steleason asylum, last month.
Some claimed that that Shadle was poisoned, though a subsequent investigation seemingly refuted the claim. At that time Bartlett was an attendant at the asylum, remaining until 7 o'clock Monday. Several nights of last week he was followed by two men, and in explaining the matter to friends, he said that it was because he knew too much about the Shadle case. He bought a revolver and was much worried about the matter. A subsequent investigation mysteriously attempted to hold him up but he evaded them.

Memorial Service in London.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The duke of York, the duke of Connaught and other members of the royal family, most of the cabinet ministers and the diplomatic corps, all wearing full uniforms, attended a memorial service Tuesday in honor of the late czar of Russia.
Among those present were Mr. James P. Roosevelt, secretary of the United States embassy; Col. V. Lindov, the United States military attaché, and Lieutenant Commander W. S. Cowles, the United States naval attaché.

Services at Washington.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Prince Can-taczenev, the Russian minister, notified the state department Tuesday that memorial services to the late czar would be held at the Russian legation at 10 o'clock Friday morning. Invitations to President Cleveland, members of the cabinet and other high officials have been issued. The ceremony will be with the impressive ritual of the Greek church. Bishop Nicolaus, of the diocese of Alaska, officiating.

Fire at Washington.

JACKSON, Tenn., Nov. 7.—At 8 o'clock Tuesday night fire broke out in the Jackson Office Furniture Co., the largest and finest manufacturing enterprise in the city, and all efforts to extinguish the flames were in vain. The entire stock, machinery and building, worth $20,000, were totally destroyed.
Insured for $60,000.

No Lynching at Van Wert.

VAN WERT, O., Nov. 7.—Young Hart, charged with murdering the children of Samuel Good, is still safe in jail, guarded by a strong force to prevent any attempt at lynching. The mob from Paulding that threatened so strongly Monday night has not yet made its appearance.

Steam Chest Explodes.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 7.—A steam chest at the Columbus steam laundry exploded with terrific force Tuesday morning, wrecking much of the interior of the building and seriously, but not fatally, injuring Miss Doran Arnold, an employee, who was struck by flying debris.

Murder in the First Degree.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Nov. 7.—The trial of Ben Glendennin, charged with the murder of Dr. J. W. Davis, near Montgomery, on the 8th of August, resulted in his being convicted of murder in the first degree. A new trial was asked for.

Killed While Hunting.

VALPARAISO, Ind., Nov. 7.—Herman Schubacker fatally shot himself Tuesday morning near his home at Hobart while hunting. He tried to punish his fighting dogs and struck at them with his gun, discharging both barrels into his body.

The Boiler Blew Up.

TORONTO, O., Nov. 7.—The boiler at the pump-house of the Congo Fire Clay Co., an empty, three miles above here, blew up. The engineer was absent and thus escaped. The boiler house is a complete wreck and the boiler was blown 150 yards.

The Transit of Mercury.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Rev. Samuel Charlesworth, a well-known English amateur astronomer, arrived in this city, having come here Tuesday night, to observe the transit of Mercury, which occurs next Saturday. Mr. Charlesworth is 78 years old.

The Transit of Mercury.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 7.—The Star Cottonseed Oil mill, one of the largest plants of the kind in the world, was destroyed by fire Tuesday night. Loss, $1,000,000. Insurance, $150,000.

THE MAYSVILLE REPUBLICAN

WEEKLY PUBLIC LEDGER.

Did U?

Did you ever think that relatives or friends who have moved to distant places—gone West, perhaps, to grow up with the country—are always glad to hear from their "old Kentucky Home"? And did it ever occur to you that a single copy of THE MAYSVILLE REPUBLICAN—the weekly edition of The Public Ledger—contains more home news than you could embrace in a hundred ordinary letters? And did it ever strike you that you can send the paper to your relatives and friends for a whole year at less cost than you can write a letter every week? Besides, don't you think a year's subscription to THE REPUBLICAN would be a present highly appreciated by those at a distance?
